Foster Home Program: Increased our potential foster home network covering all 50 states by 567 for a total of 1322 through our recruitment and interviewing efforts - 108 pets of deployed heroes being cared for in our approved individual foster homes across the country. In addition as of 71 pets have been reunited with their owners. Besides our affiliated MN chapter we have established state specific volunteer teams to provide a more "hands-on" ability in promoting our organization, recruiting foster homes, assisting our deploying military service members, coordinating "greet and meets" between the pet owner and potential foster home, placing pets into specific homes, plus working with the foster home to ensure the pet is being care for. Our state volunteers are also involved in establishing communications and a working relationship with both the military and civilian communities within their states. During 2009 our state and national level volunteers involved with our Foster Home program spent a total of 5100 hours totaling $106,335 at the 2009 volunteer value of $20.85 per hour, which is not included in the actual monies expended for this program as shown above.	$0		$2,032
Military Pet Assistance: Providing support related to urgent and emergency veterinary or other pet care related services for pets in our foster home program when (a) the pre-authorized spending amount by pet owner for vet related care has been exceeded; (b) deployed pet owner is unreachable to authorize additional expenditures; or (c) when the recommended treatment and services are beyond the pet owner's ability pay on short notice. Monies from the MPA financial funded involved 10 pets within our foster home program and our assisting 3 veterans with short term boarding due to an unforeseen emergency hardship. Efforts involved between providing financial assistance and coordination efforts between our volunteer, foster home, pet owner, and service provider totaled 450 volunteer hours for a total value of $9,383 at the 2009 volunteer value of $20.85 per hour, which is not included in the actual monies expended for this program as shown above.	$0		$3,674
MVP Sanctuary Project/Program: Continued efforts in researching and visiting potential properties within the state of Arkansas that would meet the needs of these beloved pets and to establish an official office for the organization. Though property was located that would have met all our needs, we were unable to obtain the property and due to increased number of requests for assistance within the state of Texas, after review by project committee and discussion with the national board, it was determined to move our search for such property to the state of Texas for the first sanctuary in July 2009. The remaining of the year was researching potential properties in the area between Fort Hood/Killeen and Austin TX by our TX Director, continued efforts in promoting this project and its benefits, plus working with various TX realtors for assisting in our search for needed property. Volunteer time involved with project totaled 1070 hours valued at $22,310 at the 2009 volunteer value of $20.85 per hour, which is not included in the actual monies expended for this project/program as shown above.	$0		$1,037
